As we move from the winter to the summer season, it's a key time to help players stay injury-free. Warm-ups and cool-downs are essential, especially with changes in intensity, environment, and routines.

Why not share NETBALLHer's Ten Ways to Avoid Injury article with your coaches and players - it covers everything from preparation and recovery to stress, strength, sports bras and more.

Would you like to be the NETBALLHer Champion for Dorset?

A great way to get more involved – you just need to spread the word about the fantastic resources that are available, as you go about your netball activities in your netball communities.
